Profile

Interior designer with six years in residential and hospitality projects, from first brief to handover. Runs about ten projects a year with budgets from £40,000 to £350,000, drawing 2D plans in AutoCAD and 3D visuals in SketchUp. Specifies finishes, furniture and lighting, prices the options and runs site meetings with contractors. Looking for a senior designer post at a studio with hotel and restaurant work.

Experience

Interior Designer

Saltmarsh Interiors, Brighton · 2022–present

- Run about ten projects a year for homeowners, boutique hotels and restaurants, with budgets from £40,000 to £350,000.
- Meet each client to agree the brief, then present mood boards, layouts and colour and material schemes.
- Draw 2D plans and elevations in AutoCAD, and 3D visuals in SketchUp and Enscape.
- Price two or three design options for each client, with materials, labour and a timescale.
- Source furniture, fabrics, lighting and wall and floor finishes from about 40 suppliers.
- Issue drawings and schedules to contractors and run site meetings to handover; the 24 bedrooms of a seafront hotel reopened on budget after 11 weeks in 2025.

Design Assistant, then Junior Interior Designer

Saltmarsh Interiors, Brighton · 2020–2022

- Drew up plans, built sample boards and kept the supplier library and order tracker.
