Dear Carys

Representation: Rhys Morgan, actor

I am an actor who trained at the Royal Glamorgan College of Drama, and I am looking for new representation. I am a Welsh speaker with a playing age of 24 to 32, and I recently played Tom in The Glass Menagerie at the Bute Street Studio in Cardiff.

This year I also worked as a day player on Valley Emergency and narrated an audiobook. I am strongest in naturalistic screen work and in classical text, and I am often seen for young professionals and Welsh-speaking roles.

I am writing to Westgate Artists because you represent actors working in Welsh and English across theatre and television, which is the career I am building.

My CV, headshot and showreel link are enclosed. I would be glad to meet or to send a self-tape. Thank you for your time.

Yours sincerely

Rhys Morgan
